STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1909.

NO. 32.

MIDDLEBURG.

Jason Lawhorn bought John S. Coulter's property at Yosemite for $325 and will move to it in a few days.

It continues to rain every day here and the condition of the corn crop is serious to say the least. Some fields are completely taken by weeds and will have to be abandoned. Our farmers are woefully blue and they have a right to be.

Q. R. Jones' annual Fourth of July entertainment at Oak Park will be held Saturday, July 3rd. The program will be out in a few days and will be interesting. County fairs, circuses and such affairs dwindle into insignificance when compared to Quince's 4th of July blow out.

Miss Emma Combest, of Boyle, spent several days with Miss Ruby Fogle, Esq. Cox and wife, of Alma, Nebraska, are visiting William McClure at Mt. Olive and Jason Coffey and wife at Yosemite. Samuel Coffey, of Jamestown, is here learning the banking business under our efficient cashier, Mr. R. H. Young. Jean and Martha, the little daughters of Joseph Elliott, have scarlet fever. Clarence Elliott was here from Mt. Olive Monday.

Elbert S. Wells, aged father of Sheriff Lincoln Wells, died Sunday afternoon and was buried here Monday. Deceased was 70 years old and was a kind hearted, good man and a devout member of the Methodist church. He had heart trouble and had been a sufferer a number of years. His death had been expected at any time and at about 6 o'clock Sunday evening while sitting in his chair the end came. Revs. W. R. Hunt and J. Q. Montgomery conducted funeral services at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest.

BRODHEAD.

There will be a wedding in town right soon but for fear the doctor will object we will hush.

Mrs. Ike Storms and daughter, Miss Lizzie, Mrs. J. M. Adams and son, Shirley, are visiting in Grant county.

Mrs. David Belcher is on the sick list. Mrs. J. W. Hutchison and Miss Bettie Hicks were in Louisville shopping this week.

On last Sunday children's day was celebrated at Union school house near Ottawa, good speeches, fine singing, a large crowd, plenty to eat and we are sorry to say about such an occasion but plenty of red liquor on the grounds or out in the bushes rather.

Owing to the wet weather farmers are greatly behind with work. Several had to give up part of their crops. Wheat is beginning to ripen. It is thought the crop will be an average one. Tobacco setting is about over, not as much of the weed has been put out as was thought would be.

Mrs. Maggie, wife of Will Arch Hays, of the Ottawa section, after an illness of several weeks of typhoid fever, died Monday and was buried Tuesday in the Providence cemetery. Mrs. Hays was a daughter of Tom Taylor, of Quail, was 17 years of age and had been married but three months.

The conference was presided over by Rev. D. W. Robertson, district superintendent. The addresses were well prepared and listened to with great interest. The reports were all of an encouraging nature. The entertainment was royal and all visitors were delighted with their homes. One feature of the meeting was the special revival efforts to save men and women. They were like a section of the Salvation Army. A number of preachers with a cornet and a goodly number of singers held street meetings every night. They sang and preached to immense crowds and several made promises of a better life. A District Epworth League was organized with the following officers: Rev. J. P. Strother, president; Rev. Lon Robinson, 1st vice president; Rev. Robert Jordan, 2nd vice president; Rev. C. K. Dickey, 3rd vice president; Rev. C. A. Tague, 4th vice president; Mrs. G. D. Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint. New Stanford Drug Co."

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Mary J. Harp Blankenship was born Jan. 11, 1835, and was married to Henry Blankenship Nov. 28, 1854. She professed religion and was baptized by Moses Foley in 1856 and departed this life June 6, last, to receive the reward that awaits the faithful.

How often we fail to scatter flowers in the pathway of our friends and loved ones while they are living. We keep them to place upon the graves where it will do the dead no good. Now I had known this good woman for 30 years in her home, in the church, among her neighbors, and if she had an enemy on earth I never heard of it. She was the mother of 10 children, six girls and four boys, all of whom lived to man and womanhood, but two are now dead. They were all proud to call her mother, for she was a mother to them in all the word implies. When she was able she always filled her place in the church. The church will miss her and her neighbors will miss her, but none will miss her like her old companion. They had been toiling along together for 55 years. Oh what a long time to dwell together. It was a marriage in which the Lord said: "What I have put together let no man put asunder." Nothing but death could separate them. Children, you will never see mother on earth any more, but if you will seek your mother's God, make your peace, calling and election sure with Him, you will see her again where there will be no more parting. May the Lord help you to choose the good part that will never be taken from you.

I will say to her old companion: May the good Lord bless and comfort you in the few days that you may have to be separated from each other.

No one could appreciate more than I the kindness shown me by the good people of Stanford while I was sick. Mr. and Mrs. William Carson will never be forgotten for sending me so many good things to eat, nor will I forget my good pastor, Rev. Taylor. The Christian Endeavor of the Christian church sent me nice flowers. God bless their good work for the Lord. I shall not forget the pastor of the Presbyterian church and the good ladies of his congregation, for they never forgot me. If any one wants a good nurse and good doctor call in W. T. IN the Elocutionary Contest at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening, Miss Mary Roberts, of Somerset, won first honors. Her subject was "The Fiddle Told." Miss Pattie Crum, of Danville, with "A Monologue," was awarded the second prize and Miss Lucy Walker Doty, of Lancaster, who gave "Lilly Sevosses's Ride," the third. The others who took part were Miss Duncan Foster, of Richmond, whose subject was "Aux Italiens," and Miss Marie Mahony, of Stanford, who told of "Aunt Melissa on Boys." Miss Nell Atkinson, who was to represent Harrodsburg, was detained at home by the illness of her mother and Miss Kate Alexander, of Georgetown, was also unable to come. Each of the five contestants did well and the judges, Messrs. P. M. McRoberts, K. S. Alcorn and L. R. Hughes, had to call in Mr. Geo. D. Florence to help them decide who were deserving of the prizes. During the evening Miss Em Smith, of Danville, treated the audience to a beautiful violin solo. Miss Mary McRoberts, also of Danville, sang very charmingly. Prof. J. W. Ireland, gave a bass solo and Miss Kate Newland rendered a piano number. Each effort was so well received that they were all compelled to appear for a second time. The crowd was not what it should have been but we are glad to state that the promoters, Miss Polly Duane Traylor and Mr. L. Wearen Hughes, lost no money in their effort to give our people a high-class entertainment. It is but justice to state that Stanford's entry in the contest, Miss Marie Mahony, entered as an accommodation to the management. When it was learned that Miss Alexander, of Georgetown, would not be present to take part Miss Mahony was importuned to enter and she very cleverly did so. She had only two days' practice on her piece she recited so well.

W. K. WARNER, the tinner and plumber, has secured the services of an expert workman from Chattanooga and is ready to serve you with any work in the tinning and plumbing line.

THE invitations are out for the banquet to be given Thursday, June 24th, and especial attention is called to those invited that the men will gather at the Christian church at 8 o'clock sharp, where the first part of the program will be rendered and a portion of the refreshments served. At 8:30 the men will march in a body to the opera house, so don't forget to be on time, so that the program for the evening will not be delayed. D. M. Walker, pastor.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheno, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. will make the 100 season at my farm where I live, 1/2 mile south of Stanford on the Somerset pike $10 to insure a living colt. This young Jack's colts won more in premiums in 1907 and 1908 than any Jack in the county. His two first colts have never been beaten in their class as colts and yearlings and look like winners for 1909. They were shown at all local fairs both years and at Lexington and Kentucky State Fair in 1908. His best colt was 1st winner at Kentucky State Fair and at several local fairs. Some of his 1907, 1908 and 1909 colts are on my farm to show for themselves.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cases, nor will it grow back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this terrible disease. With a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfectly dependable preservative. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this hateful, most dreaded disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend
